performer

Andrew Wilshere has been Organist and Choirmaster at Holy Trinity since 2002, and Director of the Occasional Consort since 2007. He took up the organ in 2002, passed Grade 8 with Distinction within two years, and now holds the ABRSM Diploma in Organ Performance. Having travelled to New Zealand in 2008 to direct the music for a theatre event at the University of Otago, he will soon take up the Organ Scholarship for 2009 at St Paul's Cathedral, Dunedin. Andrew would like to thank everyone at Holy Trinity for your friendship over the past six-and-a-bit years, and in particular for supporting this recital series!
